MONDAY, NOV. 30, 1921

Today is tax-paying day.

The library for the C. C. Association has arrived.

Mr. R. W. O'Brien sold tobacco here yesterday at $41.

If you missed the Chatauqu go off and kick yourself.

You will find it at the bazaar December 8, 9 and 10.

Miss Ruth Caldwell, of Lynchburg, spent Thanksgiving with her parents.

Take Tania and eat three square meals a day. Chas. F. Jones.

Mrs. N. H. Gregory left yesterday for a visit to Mrs. Moore, of Amelia county.

Mr. F. P. Groves, of Bedford county, has moved to the Trent farm on Appomattox river.

Miss Callie Babcock had an accident at R. M. W. C. and is home.

Mrs. L. D. Marshall and little son, Eugene, have returned to Richmond after a visit to her parents.

Miss Earle Patterson spent several days last week visiting relatives and friends in Lynchburg.

Don't blame anybody but yourself if your Eighth is made miserable by indigestion.

You failed to take Tania. Chas. F. Jones.

Mrs. C. M. Harris and daughter, Miss Stule, of Roanoke, spent the weekend at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Caldwell, Jr.

Open Franklin Stove for sale—Good as new, cheap for cash. R. J. Finkelson, Appomattox, Va.

On Thursday night the pastor of Liberty Baptist church is teaching the Sunday school lesson. You are invited to come.

The regular monthly business meeting of Liberty Baptist church will be held next Sunday morning at the close of the morning service.

Rev. H. Parlett East, pastor of Liberty Baptist church, recently declined a unanimous call to a very promising field and finely equipped church in Richmond, Va.

There will be a mass meeting of Presbyterians and friends here Sunday night at 7:30 to organize a Christian Endeavor society, probably a Lynchburg chapter.

The demand for Tania has been all world records. The Twenty Million bottles have been sold since it was first on the market six years ago. Chas. F. Jones.

Miss Mary H. Babcock returned Friday from Roanoke where she attended the Shriners banquet and reports a great time. She was the guest of Miss Annie L. Moore while in the city.

Miss Virginia Hancock, of Hollins college, accompanied by her brother, Braxton, and Miss Leonard, also of Hollins college, have been on a visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Hancock.

Circuit Court convenes here Thursday. Hon. J. R. Horsely is clerk for Clerk Smith during the latter's illness.

Lost—Female Fox Hound with one black ear, on round one eye, answer to name Whisky. Liberal reward for information leading to recovery. Notify C. H. Covington, Prospect, Va.

There will be a play entitled "A Hooded Con", given at Hollywood school, Saturday night, December 3rd, at 7:30. Admission: adults 25c; children 10c. Oysters served.

The following marriage licenses have been issued: Jim Padden and Nannie May; Wm. S. Reed and Ida Hubbard; Chas. D. McCorkle and Ethel L. Leadbetter.

Mrs. H. H. East has returned after a visit of two weeks with her daughter, Mrs. P. W. Ricard, at Truitts Heights, Va.

Mrs. Ricard was recently underwent an operation for appendicitis is getting along very nicely.

At a meeting of citizens held here last week a Board of Trade was organized for the purpose of looking after the interests of the town and C. A. Hancock was made president and J. W. Cawthon secretary and Treas.

The board contemplates a booster campaign for Appomattox. Let everybody boost Appomattox.

Mr. R. L. Burke, cashier of the Bank of Appomattox was one of the speakers at the meeting of the tobacco growers at Danville on the 25th. He also visited Chatham, where the farmers were having another meeting in the interest of Co-operative marketing. It is a settled matter now that the crop next year will not be cried out by auctioneers on the warehouse floors.

The Bazaar
The Ladies of the Christian Community Association are putting the finishing touches on bazaar booths and decorations, and the public is urged to come to the hall for fancy work, Christmas gifts, and fine oysters and coffee will be served every day from 11 a. m. to 11 p. m. for the three days. The people from the county at large are expected to use these rooms and library whenever in town. Let the young and the old use the rooms for rest and recreation whenever convenient. The bazaar is planned to raise funds for furniture and to maintain the institution and it deserves the support of our people. Those who have fancy work for the bazaar are requested to bring or mail it to Mrs. J. A. Sears on or before next Tuesday. Anyone desiring to contribute a piece of fancy work or any other article will also send it in. Remember the dates December 8th, 9th and 10th. All of Appomattox will be there.

Swope—Hush
Miss Mabel Amelia Rush and Frank McGraw Swope were united in marriage at the home of the bride on Wednesday. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles K. Rush and is an accomplished graduate of Buckingham high school. Mr. Swope is a well known business man and is a son of the late Dr. William M. Swope. Consistent C. Anti-Beer Bill.

If the so-called Anti-Beer Bill is signed by President Harding, and is not found unconstitutional by the courts, it is hard to see how anything can be found unconstitutional in the future. The bill expands the section of the Constitution on which it is supposedly based and directly violates another section. The Eighteenth Amendment prohibits "the manufacture, sale, or transportation of intoxicating liquors within, the importation thereof into, or the exportation thereof from the United States and all territories subject to the jurisdiction thereof for beverage purposes."

The authorities are working in the theory that the party were members of one of the gangs of negroes that have been robbing freight cars and committing similar depredations.

Pride of Ownership

THE Ford Touring Car has brought to the farm homes of the country more real pleasure, comfort and convenience than perhaps any other one thing. It has enabled the farmer and his family to mingle with friends, attend church, neighborhood functions, and enjoy the many pleasures that abound in country life. Truly the Ford car with its low cost of operation and maintenance, its usefulness and efficiency, has been a boon to the American farmer. Your order should be placed at once if you wish to avoid delay in delivery.

Appomattox Motor Co.,
Appomattox, Va.

The amendment says nothing about the prohibition of alcoholic liquors for medicinal purposes, which is the subject of the measure in question.

The Fourth Amendment asserts "the right of the people to be secure in their persons, houses, papers, and effects, against unreasonable searches and seizures", and denies it the issuance of search warrants without "probable cause, supported by oath or affirmation, and particularly describing the place to be searched, and the persons or things to be seized." The Anti-Beer Bill respects this right in regard to houses only, and denies it in the case of persons or properties outside the home.

If the Anti-Beer Bill is constitutional, nothing that Congress will enact is unconstitutional, and the Constitution itself is subject to change without notice by the Anti-Saloon League.—N. Y. World.

BELIEVE ROBBERS AT TACKLED CHAUFFEUR

Negro Taxicab Driver Found Unconscious by Party of Hunters Near Appomattox. George Updike, colored, of Jacksonville, a taxicab operator, was found in a clump of bushes two miles beyond Oakville by a party of hunters last Friday afternoon. Updike was unconscious, his head a mass of cuts and bruises.

He was rushed to the Lynchburg city hospital where he recovered consciousness long enough to tell investigators that he had been snugged and shown from his car into Wednesday evening. According to his story he had been engaged by a party of four negroes, a woman and three men, to drive them from Lynchburg to Appomattox on Wednesday. At Appomattox the party changed their minds and gave him a new address to drive to. A little way beyond Oakville he was snugged from behind, dragged into a clump of bushes and left there to wait. He was sufficiently conscious at the time to hear the party drive away in his machine, a five-passenger Dodge touring car.

The doctor's examination disclosed the fact that his skull was fractured by the blow and as is suffering from the effects of two days and nights of exposure and little hope is held out for his recovery. So far he has not been able to give any coherent description of his assailants. The authorities are working in the theory that the party were members of one of the gangs of negroes that have been robbing freight cars and committing similar depredations.

That is, Some Men. Before the party it was known to declare himself unfavorable to his sweetheart's love, and after marriage to spend his nights of his time proving it.—Chicago News.

Lumber Back to Normal.
LUMBER has reached a price-level where its value bears the true and proper proportion to the value of the products you farmers raise and sell. In other words, prices today on lumber are consistent with prices on farm products. THERE'S NOTHING MYSTERIOUS about it—just the old law of supply and demand—and a willingness on our part to play fair with our customer friends by reducing our prices to a point where you can afford to buy.

RIGHT NOW your problem may be a barn, a shed or other building necessary to help you do your work better, more quickly or more economically. Or it may mean a new home, or repairing and remodeling the old one. BRING YOUR PROBLEM TO US—Let us show you the facts.
